Poem #9 - Mensa for Kids

And sore must be the storm That could abash the little bird That kept so many warm I've heard it in the chillest land, And on the strangest sea; Yet, never, in extremity, It asked a crumb of me This poem uses an extended metaphor to compare hope to a bird inside oneself that never stops singing its tune A gale is a storm, and that is when

2.2.The Story of an Hour

When the storm of grief had spent itself she went away to her room alone She would have no one follow her There were patches of blue sky showing here and there through the clouds that had met and Let's look at the title of this story first, "The Story of an Hour" Does this title give us any clues

EXPERIENCE THE DIFFERENCE

How It Works Forescout Difference Let Us Show You "Prior to Forescout we used a number of disparate tools for asset discovery and audit, and a significant amount of manual work was required to collate all of the data, which introduces risk The Forescout solution eliminated this problem and the fact it is so much more than an audit and discovery
